As Omega
A song of Mark Berryhill

If you die this day, where will you spend eternity? Have you been baptized into our Lord Jesus? Are you walking in the light of Christ?
Concentrate on the eternal, and not the temporal. Fix your eyes on the Lord.
Love Him, worship Him and serve Him with all of your being.
He loves us so. He is my friend, and I am one of His many children.
God told Eve not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.
She was disobedient so sin and death entered into the world. Thanks be to God for His Son and our Savior the Lord Jesus Christ.
How many people will die today? How many people will die tomorrow?
Did they not want to continue living? Did they not want to see the child at play?
Seek the Lord with all of your heart, soul, mind and strength. Seek the eternal and not the temporal things of the world.
On the day that we die, may we hear well done good and faithful servant from our Lord.
The Lord placed an Omega sign above me a few months ago. The cloud was perfectly designed as the Greek alphabet letter is designed, the sign of the Omega.
Warn your friends to stop living in darkness and pray fervently for them.
It is a joy walking in the power of the Holy Ghost. It is a joy seeking the face of the Almighty.
The children are His hearts concern. The children are the reason for His unflinching faithfulness.
The children are His love, and He is their love.
The newborn child and the one-hundred year old child; the children are His hearts concern.
Obedience to the Gospel of Christ creates faith in the blood of the Lamb. His victory was won at the cross.
Study, pray and fast. Seek the Lord with me for He is good.
How many people will die today? How many people will die tomorrow?
Concentrate on the eternal, and not on the temporal.
Walk in the Spirit, and not in the uncleanness of the flesh.
Prepare yourself as the bride of Christ. Prepare yourself as a son or daughter of the Lord God Almighty.
He is risen, He is coming. Even so, hallelujah, Lord come quickly.
Be ready, for the kingdom of Heaven is at hand.
Study, pray and fast. Serve the Lord with me for He is good.
We are warned! We are warned! We are warned! Spend eternity with the King.
Pray, study and fast.

Lion of Judah is His Name
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

Can you hear the thunder roaring, roaring as a great Lion? Lion of Judah is His name.

The Lion of Judah reigns. In righteousness and in equity the Lion of Judah reigns.

Can you hear the thunder roaring, roaring as a great Lion? Lion of Judah is His name.

The Lion of Judah reigns. In righteousness and in equity, the Lion of Judah reigns.

Can you hear the thunder roaring, roaring as a great Lion? Lion of Judah is His name.

The Lion of Judah reigns. In righteousness and in equity, the Lion of Judah reigns.

Have you looked outside tonight? Have you looked at the beauty and brilliance of stars innumerable?

He calls them by name each night. Have you wondered how He can call the stars by name each night?

Meditate upon the Lord. Consider how great the works of His hands truly are!

The government is carried by His strength, and by His knowledge.

He is faithful to those who trust in Him. He is the giver of all good gifts.

Within the arms He cradles the child. Within His heart, His Son is placed.

He created love. He made life, and He is the light of men.

Before the child cries, He is there. Before the child whimpers, He is there.

He knows all things and He loves you so. He is Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

The children are the delight of His heart. The children cause the joy that keeps Him going.

Father, teach these precious lambs Your Word each day.

Father, we love You! Father, we need You! Father, love these children with all of Your being!

Lord Jesus, thank You for Your victory at the cross. Lord Jesus, thank You for the gift of the child. Lord Jesus, thank You for Your blood.

Holy Ghost, dwell within the hearts and minds of these precious lambs.

Holy Ghost, write Your Great Word in the hearts and minds of these precious lambs.

Holy Ghost, You are a joy and a delight. Holy Ghost, thank You for living within the hearts and minds of God's children.

Before the first whimper, even before the child is delivered from the womb, the Lord was there.

You see my friend and loved one, He is all knowing, all powerful, and as gentle as a lamb.

In His greatness and in His love there is no end. His greatness and His love exceed infinite.

He is the Great I AM. He is the Lord and giver of all good things.

When I see the pain the Lord Jesus suffered at the cross, I inquire of Him, why my Lord?

And He says, no greater love has any man than to lay down His life for the ones He loves.

At the cross was joy and victory. I told you that I love you days and months and years without end He said.

He saw the victory that He won for us because He loved us.

He knew that his Father would raise Him as He will raise us.

You see my children, my handsome son, and my beautiful daughter, faith is increased through the knowledge of His Word.

Lord Jesus, I love You. Lord Jesus, I need You. Lord Jesus, thank You for blessings without end.

Exalt the Lord with me for He is good. His mercy and grace and greatness and love endure forevermore.

My precious children, Jesus is great. My children may He be Your all in all.

Can you hear the thunder roaring, roaring as a great Lion? Lion of Judah is His name.

The Lion of Judah reigns. In righteousness and in equity, the Lion of Judah reigns.

In the Spirit of Thanksgiving
A song of Mark Berryhill

Father, fill us with the spirit of thanksgiving.
Help us to always see the good and not the bad.
Father, please give us, Your children, the spirit of thanksgiving.
Father, may we become a people filled with the Holy Ghost. Father, may our lives be ever spent loving, and seeking You.
Father, teach us Your ways. Father, teach us to love You with all of our being.
Lord Jesus, thank You for our children. Lord Jesus, thank You for the blessing of the child.
Father, thank You for carrying all of these lambs by Your strength and by Your love.
So as it is written, love will cover a multitude of sins.
Father, thank You for the magnificent love displayed by You at the cross.
Father, thank You for telling us that You love us more than You love Yourself.
Lord Jesus, thank You from all of us that can see the pain and agony You suffered at the cross.
Lord Jesus, thank You for buying us at the cross. Help us to be as faithful to You as You were to Your Father.
Within the heart of God's child dwells Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
How important is the intent of the heart? Is the motive of the heart to be weighed by the Father?
How important is the intent of the heart? Is the motive of the heart to be weighed by the Father?
Tell me if you can, how important is the intent of the heart? Is the motive of the heart to be weighed by the Father?
With blood dripping down from the thorns in His innocent head, tell me if you can the motive of your Father.
With tears of pain flowing down His precious cheeks, my friend, can you tell me the motive of His heart?
My friends weigh the motive of His heart if you can.
I love you He said, and I love you with all that I AM!

This is Holy Ground
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

When you look across this great land, what do you see?
When you look across this great land, what do you want to see?
May we see the children, both young and old meditating on God's Word as were
His servants of old.

Knowledge is from the Lord. Love and happiness are from the Lord.
My friends, my loved ones, diligently seek the face of our King.
Love Him, and serve Him with study, prayer and fasting.
Knowledge of the holy comes from the Holy One, for He is the Holy One of Israel.

May we see the children both young and old meditating on God's Word as were
His servants of old.

Consider the beauty of God's universe.
Consider the baby birds that are safely residing in their nests.
Consider the fawn as she prances eloquently through the open field.
Consider the beauty of untouched trees that reach into the Heavens.
Consider the black bear that is walking ever so closely to the water of the lake.
He is hungry and his prey is near.
Consider the pike and wall-eye fish that were so properly prepared for the feast.
Consider the beauty of the sound of the wind as it gently glides through untouched trees and then returns from where He came.
Consider the majesty of snow capped mountains throughout the earth.
Consider the beauty of roaming deserts that stretch endlessly throughout this great land.

Have you considered that God feeds the animals that call these deserts their home each day?

Consider life and then consider death. Consider the horror of eternal separation and eternal damnation separated from our Father.

Consider the everlasting beauty of eternal life in paradise with our Father.
Learn the Word, live the Word and teach the Word. Walk in the light as He is in the light.

Exalt the Lord with me all of you saints, for He is good.

Father, the Son and
the Holy Ghost

Thank Him for His Grace and Mercy
A song of Mark Berryhill

Have you ever noticed how beautiful the plants, trees and grass become following an abundance of rain?

Have you ever noticed how desolate and unattractive plants, trees and grass become without rain?

Throughout the writings of the Holy Scriptures, God has blessed His children with rain for obedience, and has withheld rain for disobedience.

Our bodies are the temple of the true and living God.

We must care for and nurture our bodies as what they truly are, the Temple of the true and living God.

Drink an abundance of water, and eat healthy.

Not as a commandment but as a blessing for each one of us; let us eat bountifully the fruits, vegetables and soups that the Lord so graciously provides.

Fasting has been one of the most overlooked blessings of recent years.

Fasting is an act of worship to the Lord, teaches us discipline and keeps us healthier.

As the blood of our Savior is our eternal life, so the blood within our bodies is our temporal life. Let us do all that we can to keep our blood pure and clean.

Knowledge is more readily acquired provided a person fasts regularly, and memory retention capability increases substantially.

Study diligently, pray without ceasing and fast regularly and often.

Drink an abundance of water, and completely abstain from alcohol and the unhealthy drinks.

Love the LORD your God with all of your heart, with all of your soul, with all of your mind and with all of your strength. Love your neighbor as yourself.

Keep the vows of marriage. Be holy and faithful to your spouse.

If you are an unmarried child of God, remember that you are the bride of Christ and that sexual purity is a commandment, and not a choice.

The Lord desires to bless His children. Knowledge and wisdom are found only in the Holy Scriptures.

My blessed child is it true that the Lord reveals His secrets to His servants the prophets?

He says that He is the same yesterday, today and forever.

His love for His children reaches higher than the highest star of the Heaven of Heavens.

With grace and mercy that endures throughout infinity, He will write His Word on the hearts and minds of His children Israel.

the Holy Ghost

The Beauty is His Son
A song of Mark Berryhill

Dwell in the light of the Lord. Dwell in the light with the Lord.
Father, teach us to be perfect in both flesh and spirit.
Train us as You trained our Savior the Lord Jesus.
Teach us how to discern good and evil as you discern good and evil.
May we care for and love the fatherless, and widows in their affliction as You care for and love the fatherless and widows in their affliction.
As You trained Jesus, may You and Jesus train us in the world of spirits.
Father, fill us with the Holy Ghost. As on the day of Pentecost may You pour Him upon and within us.
Baptism into Jesus is the light of walking in obedience to commandment.
Lord Jesus, we praise You this day. Lord Jesus, we love You this day.
Lord Jesus, thank You for the beauty of this creation. Lord Jesus, thank You for the beauty of life.
Lord Jesus, thank You for eternal life. Lord Jesus, thank You for Your victory at the cross.
Father, thank You for the gift of fasting. Thank You for the magnificence of Your power residing so readily.
Lord, teach us how to study Your Word while we study.
We pray for knowledge and understanding from You.
We exalt You today because we love You.
Father, thank You for the beauty of the birth of newborn children.
The birth of a newborn child is without question one of Your greatest gifts to Your people.
You my Lord are an awesome God. You my Lord are our great reward.
Father, teach us to enjoy the beauty of Your creation. Teach us to rest in Your love for each one of us.
May I see the cross of Your Son always before me. May the picture of Your precious Son be ever present before my spiritual eyes.
Orange, violet, white, light blue, light green and dark green are beautiful colors my Lord and my God.
Holy Ghost, have we told You that we love You today?
Lord Jesus, have we told You that we need You this day?
Father, have we told You that we thank You and praise You for the blood of the Lamb?
Eternal One. Eternal victory. Jesus won the race on the tree at Calvary.
He is risen and He is coming. Even so Lord Jesus come quickly.
May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

Speaking in Tongues
A song Mark Berryhill

The Lord just blessed me with my first experience of speaking in tongues.
The experience was exhilarating.
Study, prayer and diligent fasting have a direct correlation to this wonderful experience. His awesome presence, power and peace become so evident.
The Lord is a rewarder of good things to those who diligently seek Him.
Father, Lord Jesus, Holy Ghost, thank You for the unexpected gift of speaking in tongues.
Glorify God with speaking in tongues. Take off your shoes, lift up holy hands high to the sky and pray.
Love Him and serve Him for days without end.

Mercy and Love
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God Almighty, which was, and is and is to come.
Exalt the Lord with me for He is good. His mercy, grace and love will never end.
Can you fathom what it must be like to be the Father of all?
Can you fathom what it must be like to know all things simultaneously?
Why would He take of His time to show you how much that He loves you?
Why would He create creatures in His own image? Why would He create creatures in the likeness of Him?
I ask You Lord, why do You create these precious and fragile babies.
Because I AM.
Father, thank You for the gift of Your Son. Thank You for the victory of the cross.
Jesus, I love You! Jesus, I need You! Jesus, I adore You!
Exalt the Lord with me for He is good. His mercy, grace and love will never end.
How much do you love your son? How much do you love your daughter?
The love that you have for your son and daughter is nothing compared to the love the Holy Ghost has for you.
He is all powerful. He is all knowing. He is the love of mankind.
The Holy Ghost is our Divine guide. He is from the Father of lights.
His mercy, grace and love will never end.
He is Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
Which of these do you consider the greatest: faith, hope or charity?
May our Father bless us with faith, as the Blessed Trinity's faith.
May our Father, the rewarder of good things to those who diligently seek Him, bless us with hope as the Blessed Trinity's hope.
May our Father, the giver of all good gifts bless us with charity as the Blessed Trinity's charity.

He is the Great I AM
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

Who is the Holy Ghost? What does He do for me? Why would I want or need a Ghost dwelling within my heart?

He is the light of the heart! He is the guide within the children of Jesus Christ.

Why is He so important? He is important because He, as the Father and Son, can do all things.

With the Holy Ghost, you my precious child can do all things.

With His strength and with His faith and with His power, you, my precious child can set the world on fire for the King of kings.

He as the Father and as the Son can do all things. Nothing is impossible for the Holy Ghost!

He as the Father and as the Son loves and laughs and cries.

He has a heart of pure love. He has a heart that will become the way of the world.

The Holy Ghost is your friend and He will become even closer to each child of Jesus Christ.

He is faithful and He is the Spirit of truth.

He is the light of mankind. He is to be praised and exalted as the Father and the Son are to be praised and exalted.

With love that reaches from earth to the Heaven of heavens, and with mercy that will exceed infinity, He is the great I AM, Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Praise God for His Lamb
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

The man I visited with this morning is skin and bones. From his appearance he seemed as a weak man.

But there was no fear in the eyes of the man who appeared as a weak man.

He is a man of faith. He is a man of God. In his Lord he fully trusts.

I had told him before that it is the weak and feeble who are often times most needed.

Why would that be so? The fervent prayers of righteous men and women availeth much says the Lord God of Israel.

As we become weak, He becomes strong. As our fleshly bodies are deteriorating day by day, our spirit is being renewed and strengthened by the power of the Holy Ghost day by day.

Life suddenly becomes worth living for the dying when this simple truth becomes reality.

All praise, glory and honor unto the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.

Hallelujah for His Lamb! Hallelujah for His Lamb! Hallelujah for His Lamb!

As Zephaniah wrote, "The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; He will save, He will rejoice over thee with joy; He will rest in His love, He will joy over thee with singing."¹

Jesus we will set Your name on high. We will love You with all of our hearts, souls, minds and strength.

Holy, holy, holy Lord God Almighty, which was, and is and is to come.

We will walk and live from this day forward in the power of the Holy Ghost.

The weak man is becoming a strong man. The weak man belongs to the King of kings.

I AM THAT I AM
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

How important is the time a father spends with his son and daughter?
How important is the time that You spend with us Almighty Father?
Father, Son and Holy Ghost, thank You for the gift of the child. Thank You for the gift and relationship between us and You and the relationship between fathers and their children throughout this blessed earth.

Father, I love You! Jesus, I need You! Spirit, we adore You!
Love us and mold us with Your skillful hands.
Lord God, what will Heaven be like? How beautiful is the Heaven of heavens?
My Lord, these precious children need to be nurtured with Your love, and with Your guidance.

Love them, cherish them, nurture them and lead them by the power of the Holy Ghost!

He is Father. He is Son. He is Holy Ghost. He is I AM THAT I AM.
Can you hear the laughter of the child at play? Can you see the beauty of children residing safely in the bosom of the Father?

He is the great I AM!
He is Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
Can you see the love that resides within His heart? Can you hear Him as He sings over you with joy in His heart this very night?

He is my Father. He is my Savior. He is the Spirit that resides within His children.

Father, You are an awesome God indeed. Lord Jesus, You are an awesome Lord indeed. Holy Ghost, You have become our joy and delight.

Did you know that He loves, laughs and cries? You see my friend; He created us, His called-out children in His image and in His likeness.

How great is the Father who created life? What is His name? What is His Son's name?

How great is the blood of the Lamb? Eternal One. Eternal love. Eternal victory. Jesus Christ is His name.

Victor of Eternal Life
A song of Mark Berryhill

The grass and trees are manicured with perfection in mind. The old building is well maintained and nicely painted.

Actually the eloquence of the building is vivid and the peace of the Lord rests upon the beautiful people that are in attendance this particular morning.

Within the building the priest excitedly and confidently leads prayers, songs and Bible lessons.

Hallelujah he proclaims all praise, glory and honor to the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.

The choir begins harmonizing wonderfully and the presence of the Holy Spirit becomes even more real as the other people join in with the choir in singing.

The guitarist soon afterward joins in and adds even more beauty to the picturesque scene.

The people are there for one reason. The people are there to serve the Creator of life and Victor of eternal life.

The people are exalting the Lord in word and in deed.

The people are helping Father, Son and Holy Ghost feed His lambs.

The lambs of Jesus Christ are His reason for existence. To feed the lambs of Father, Son and Holy Ghost is the reason for life.

Do you love the Father? Feed His lambs. Do you love the Son? Feed His lambs. Do you love the Holy Spirit? Feed His lambs.

The elderly man walked with a severe limp. As he was leaving the building he stopped briefly to visit with the priest.

The priest greeted him with a greeting of joy, reverence and eloquence.

The Spirit of love and the Spirit of humility rest upon the man of God. The elderly man departed from church that morning walking in the newness of life.

The elderly man is a lamb of God.

He is a Gracious LORD
A song of Mark Berryhill

Last year the man said to trust in yourself. He was confident that he was responsible for his success.

Today the same man is attentive to the calling of His Creator the Almighty God.

The man for too many years enjoyed the alcohol that has silently destroyed his liver.

The Lord, being gracious to him, is giving him time to learn about the Lord Jesus Christ.

Last year another man that had helped me too many times to write about, passed away with cancer.

The man was my dad. I loved him so. For years I had asked my precious dad to put away the tobacco that he craved as I had once craved it.

Your body and my body are the tabernacles of the living God.

Keep your spirit and body pure. Avoid and denounce all of the temptations that are put in front of you.

There is a man that is a preacher. The man is a man of God.

My father, who I loved so, told me that the man of God begins each morning by arising at four in the morning.

When there is a place for him to swim, I understand that he begins his morning at that time by swimming.

After that exercise his meditation on the Lord begins. He is a diligent studier of the only book in the world that we truly need.

He is a preacher of the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

How many souls has the Lord used the preacher to save?

Keep yourself pure. Father, we pray that You will help us to keep ourselves perfect in both body and spirit.

Father, we love You! Jesus, we need You! Spirit, we adore You! Lead us in all that we do!

Love, Faith and Hope
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

For a few moments Father and Son were separated.
The tears were flowing freely down the precious cheeks of Immanuel.
Were they tears of sadness or were they tears of joy?
My friends tell me if you can, were Immanuel's tears tear's of sadness or tears of joy?

The Father is Son. The Father is Holy Ghost.
Who felt more pain on the day of Calvary, Father, Son or Holy Ghost?
Wise men, wise woman tell me if you can who felt more pain on the day of Calvary, Father, Son or Holy Ghost?

On the day of Calvary, who experienced more joy, Father, Son or Holy Ghost?
Wise friend, on the day of Calvary, who experienced more joy, Father, Son or Holy Ghost?

Father, Son and Holy Ghost have become our lives. Thank You for Your creation and for your brilliant plan of salvation.

He cried My child, where are you? Can you see beloved child that it was the Father crying on the day of Calvary?

With unseen tears flowing down our invisible Father's face, it was the Father of all who felt the pain of Calvary.

I asked my Father how much He loves each child. He answered by saying, will you allow your child to die for the sins of these people?

Lord Jesus, thank You for Your victory at the cross of Calvary!

Father, Son and Holy Ghost are the Blessed Trinity. He is Creator, Sustainer, Savior and friend of the child.

He is I AM THAT I AM. Wise man, wise woman remember that He created the child.

In reference to love, faith and hope: love is the greatest of these.

The Beauty of God's Child
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

He is risen. He is coming. Even so Lord Jesus, come quickly. Amen.
In life obstacles and struggles become blessings and opportunities.
He formed you in the womb of your mother. He breathed life into Adam and he became a living soul.
He spoke and light came into existence. He is the great I AM.
He has a heart of pure love and this morning He heard His child say the Pledge of Allegiance.
His heart was touched and today His excitement for living is renewed.
He became wise because He is the Word. He became flesh so that He could give His life a ransom for many.
He is Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
The fear of the Lord is pure and clean. Father help me and these precious children to fear you all of our days.
He became wise because He meditated on the Word day and night.
He gave us the free gift of His child. We are a blessed and loved people.
My precious son and my precious daughter, Jesus loves you so. Write His Word on the table of your hearts.

Jesus Christ: the Power of God and the Wisdom of God
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

He was left alone by those whom had told Him that they loved Him. As the fire of persecution arose, they withered from the heat. They had slept while He had prayed. Thank You for the avenue of prayer Lord Jesus. Thank You for the free and undeserved gift of Your child Almighty Father.

The innocent man hung on the tree in order to set you free from the guilt and worry of sins that were nailed with Him at the cross on the day of Calvary.

That day Jesus said that I love you. My Father knows all things. Walk with Me in the light today and henceforth He says.

Most of the same men who had withered from the heat of the fire of persecution earlier, later gave their lives for the ones whom they had said they loved. They had understood what Jesus meant when He said, "greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."²

Father God, help us feed Your precious lambs Your Word today and each day henceforth. Father, how great You are! Jesus, how great You are! Holy Ghost, how great You are!

Father, thank You for Jesus. Father, thank You for the eternal power of the blood of Your lamb. Thank You for the gift of the Holy Ghost.

His Greatest Treasure
A song of Mark Berryhill

I was praying and asking the Lord to reveal a new message to me.

While considering what I had asked for He revealed to me the greatest treasure of life.

A few short hours before, I had met a precious little boy who I suppose was about three or maybe four years old.

The Lord said there is your revelation. There is the greatest treasure ever created by the Father of lights.

The greatest treasure in the world is the child. Whether boy or girl is irrelevant. His love for them is the same.

He can do all things. He was, He is and He is to be.

Knowledge, understanding, wisdom and revelation come forth from the book known by one of His many names, THE WORD OF GOD.

Have you ever noticed that every move of a child expresses their excitement and joy for life.

Their excitement and joy for life is another of God's many treasures.

Father, I had once said that ten more children for me would do my Lord.

However, after considering more diligently Lord Jesus, I suppose that eleven more will be even better.

Enjoy life. Enjoy the treasures that God so bountifully and magnificently bestows upon His children.

He is all knowing. He is all powerful. He is a Father, Son and Spirit that have placed their children in their heart.

He created life. He created the child. He created everything beautiful.

He is the Holy One of Israel. He was, He is and is to be.

Love Him with all of your heart, soul, mind and strength.

Let us make Him our only reason for living.

Father, the Son and
the Holy Ghost

Enjoy the Beauty of Life
A song of Mark Berryhill

The mother says that she loves her children but she will not take the necessary time that is required to feed her children God's Word.

Obedience brings rewards and blessings while disobedience brings punishment.

I pray Lord God that You will deliver the children into my hands and watch me raise them in the daily admonition and nurture of the Lord.

Thank You for all the rain Lord Jesus.

The air is so fresh and clean. The varied colors of the sky are very pleasant to the eyes today.

Lord Jesus, thank You for the grass which has become so beautiful and green because of all of the rain.

Thank You for the pretty tall trees that the birds rest in and call their home.

Thank You for the beauty and life each plant brings into our lives.

The land that had become a dry and barren land quickly became a land filled with an abundance of rain.

Obedience to the Gospel of Jesus Christ brings showers of blessings while disobedience will bring His wrath and destruction.

Father may we learn to fear You as Jesus fears You.

Father may we learn to love You as Jesus loves You.

Father may we learn to trust You as Jesus trusts You.

Blessed be Father, Son and Holy Ghost; one and the same.

Each Season is for Praising the Holy Ghost
A song of Mark Berryhill

Who is the Holy Ghost? Does He love me? Should I serve Him?

The Holy Ghost is one of the Blessed Trinity. As the Father and Son are to be loved and worshipped, so is the Holy Ghost to be loved and worshipped.

He is the Spirit of the true and living God. As the Father and Son can do all things, so also can the Holy Ghost do all things.

There is nothing that is impossible for Him. He was, He is and He is to come!

He is the light and guide of Jesus Christ's children. He is to be loved, worshipped and obeyed as the Father and as the Son are to be worshipped and obeyed.

He is the Spirit of truth and He is the Comforter. He lives and dwells within the hearts and minds of God's chosen and called-out children.

He is Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Be Ever Present Lord Jesus
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

May Your face be ever present before me Lord Jesus.

May I see You at all times and may you be ever present within the hearts of my children.

May they also see Your face before them at all times.

Today has been another blessed day. Today was another day to seek and serve the King of kings.

Father fill these precious children with Your Word. Help them and myself to meditate on Your Word day and night without ceasing.

Father we need to have a revival for You. We want to sing and dance before You with all of our might.

Father thank You for the rain today. Father thank You for the gift of another day.

Thank You for the gift of life Lord Jesus. More importantly, thank You for the gift of eternal life.

Thank You for Your victory at the cross.

Holy Ghost, I pray that You will open the doors so that we can serve You, Jesus and our Father all day every day.

Eternal Inheritance: Jesus Christ is His Name
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

Train us in the Spirit Lord Jesus.
Teach us to be perfect in both the flesh and spirit.
Moral purity is a commandment, not a choice.
Consider how much you love your son and your daughter.
Christ's love for you is even greater than the love you have for your own son and daughter.
Eternal inheritance. Jesus Christ is His name.

In His Word is Knowledge, Wisdom and Understanding
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

Father we need for You to become more prevalent in our daily lives.
We need You to stay closer to us.
Father thank You for today. Help me to meditate on Your Word day and night.
Father thank You for Your Word. Thank You for Jesus and His blood.
Father we exalt You today because we love You!
Lord Jesus we exalt You today because we love You!
When the child needed to be fed the Word, did You feed the child the Word?
When the spirit of the child craved knowledge, wisdom and understanding, did you feed the child's spirit with His Father's Word?
Concentrate on the eternal and not on the temporal.
The temporal things of this world will pass away. Jesus Christ will endure forevermore.
Meditate on God's Word day and night. Let His Word become your heart and mind.
The Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost are eternal. Spend eternity with them in paradise.
Teach us Your Word Almighty Father.

Brilliantly Created by You
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

The Holy Ghost is the light of man. He carries God's children through this exciting adventure known to man as life.

He is to be exalted and loved as the Father and the Son are exalted and loved. He is the Comforter. He is the Spirit of truth.

Holy Ghost, thank You for leading the hearts and minds of God's called-out children.

Father, You say that to keep Your commandments is to love You. I am walking in the light because I love You and I fear You so.

Father, how can I show You how much I love You? Feed the lamb's every day. Make every day a day set apart for Me He said.

Father, don't forget to stop and enjoy the fragrance of beautiful roses brilliantly created by You.

White, yellow, burgundy, pink and violet are such beautiful colors Almighty Father.

Father open Your heart and love these children. Tell them that they are important to You.

Tell them that You are their love, their life and their all in all.

Father, thank You for the time and effort it took You, Jesus and the Holy Spirit to write Your Word.

Father come and heal this great land. Lord Jesus come and heal this great land. Holy Ghost come and heal this great land.

My friend, can you tell me how great is the blood of the lamb?

How great is the eternal power of the blood of God's Lamb?

Eternal One. Eternal victory. Jesus Christ is His name.

Father remember to stop and enjoy the fragrance of beautiful roses brilliantly created by You.

Father remember to stop and enjoy the beauty of the smile of a baby boy brilliantly created by You.

Father remember to stop and enjoy the beauty of the smile of a baby girl brilliantly created by You.

Father You are the brilliant One. Eternal One. Eternal Victory. Jesus Christ is His name.

Father, Son and Holy Ghost; Creator of life, Sustainer of life and Victor of eternal life.

Walk in the light as He is in the light.

He Touched my Heart
A song of Mark Berryhill

She is beautiful. She brings love, joy and happiness to all who know her.

She is a daughter of the Most High.

This particular evening she was being very unlike herself. She was behaving very rudely.

I had already spanked her once but was going to have to spank her again.

It was then that he touched my heart. My son Nathan asked for me not to spank his sister but to spank him instead. I responded by saying that it was Evan who was misbehaving.

With tears beginning to run down his cheeks and the sobbing becoming louder and louder, it was then that he touched my heart.

He had done no wrong but was willing to take the punishment for wrongs committed by his younger sister. Seeing the beauty of his love so openly displayed toward his sister touched my heart, and eyes of new perspective were opened.

He went to the cross of Calvary because His love for you and me was greater than His love for Himself.

A Heart as the Heart of Christ's Heart
A song of Mark Berryhill

Nighttime is unquestionably one of God's greatest blessings to mankind. It is during the night that God reveals himself to us through the brilliance of shining stars.

This morning while I was working on cutting my second lawn of the day I saw a picture that will move the world a little bit closer to Christ.

There was a young boy so happy that I was caring for his family's lawn. We have had almost three weeks of rain and the grass was extremely tall.

The young boy was so excited about being able to help me by moving some small rocks and paper that were in the way of mowing.

The Lord revealed two pictures to me on this particular morning.

First, each one of us need to be moving about our Father's work as excitedly as the young boy was about helping me.

Secondly, we need the spirit of obedience residing in us as it was so evidently demonstrated in the boy this particular morning.

Father give us a heart that is open and attentive to Your holy commandments.

Father give us the spirit of obedience that was so beautifully demonstrated this morning by the precious young boy.

Father give us a heart as the heart of Christ's heart.

God of Love, Faith and Hope
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

With hands firmly placed together in the Heaven of heavens He prays without ceasing.

As He prays without ceasing so also should we be praying without ceasing.

Study and meditate on the Holy Scriptures. Let the Word of God become you.

Let the Word of God become your reason for living.

Share the gospel of Jesus Christ with others. Share the good news of the gospel of God's Son.

Time is a precious commodity. Spend the time the Lord gives you wisely meditating in His Word.

Study and see why His words make life worth living.

Words of Eternal Life
A song of Mark Berryhill

The prayer that will move the people of God just a little bit closer to the Father.
Time is and always has been one of mankind's most precious commodities.
Within the scope of time a man and a woman become what their Creator created them to become.

For our thoughts to be pure and kept pure we must be concentrating on and memorizing the Holy Scriptures.

Our Father has taken several thousand years to write the greatest book that has ever been written or ever will be written.

His Word is truth. His Word is living and within His Word are the words of eternal life.

Each of us will give an account for our actions to Jesus Christ.

May our actions be motivated by pure hearts which extend love to our Father and for our fellow man.

Holy Ghost please teach us how to study. Please teach us what to study.

Holy Ghost give us knowledge and wisdom in the management of our time.

My precious son and my beautiful daughter begin your walk with your Father while you are young.

Let every thought that we have be brought into the captivity of obedience to our Lord Jesus.

Begin memorizing the Holy Scriptures while you are young and tender so that when you are old and feeble you will know how strong and powerful your Father truly is.

His name is Father, Son and Holy Ghost. He is unchanging. He is the same yesterday, today and forever.

As He dwells in an unapproachable light so shall we walk in the light of Christ from this day and henceforth.

Being Supreme
A song of Mark Berryhill

He is holy. We are to be a holy People.
He is the light of man. He is the giver of all good things.
Life is precious. Life is short. As He is in the light, let us walk in the light from this day and henceforth.
He won the victory at the cross. He suffered pain for you and me because He loves us with all of His Being.
He is the Supreme Being. He was before the light and will remain infinitely.
At the cross He said, I love you with all that I AM!

His Love for the Child
A song of Mark Berryhill

When all is said and done and He asks each one of us what we accomplished for Him. May we be able to look into His eyes and say for You Lord Jesus we gave our all.

May His response be as music dancing in our ears. I know You gave your all for Me, well done good and faithful servant.

In the world of the Spirit sadness becomes joy, pain becomes comfort and sickness becomes wholeness.

He is a God who is perfect. He is a God that spoke and light came into existence.

While you sleep He stands beside you and watches over you. While you work and play He walks beside you for no other reason except that He loves you.

He lives within His called-out children and He walks beside us on this short journey here on earth we call life.

He is all powerful. He is all knowing. He is the Almighty.

His love for the child is shown beautifully and perfectly by His infinite victory known as the Cross of Calvary.

By God's Right Hand
A song of Mark Berryhill

Father, guide my every thought with Your Spirit.
Father, guide the children's hearts with Your Spirit.
Tell them that You love them Lord Jesus.
Knock on their door so they will know that You care.
His hand reached out from Heaven. His hand reached out and told us that He loved us.
His hand placed His well beloved on the cross.
You see my friend, at the cross Jesus won the victory of eternal life for His children.
My friends and my loved ones, walk in the light as He is in the light.
Stay pure in the Spirit and in the flesh.
Meditate on the Lord. Meditate on His Word.
Pray without ceasing unto the giver of all good things.
Thank Him for His Son and for their victory at the cross of Calvary.

Heart of Jehovah
A song of Mark Berryhill

Can the heart of Jehovah be mended after being broken?
Can His smile ever return to its former glory?
Can His daughter, the very reason for existence, change her life of sin to a life of beauty?
Can His daughter not hear the gentle whisper of His voice saying, I love you with all that I AM!
Can His daughter not understand the pathway of righteousness ordained for her before the Heavens were spread forth or the foundations of the earth laid?
Can she not hear the gentle whisper of the Great I AM, I love you with all that I AM!

Who is the Holy Ghost?
A song of Mark Berryhill

Do you love the Holy Ghost? Who is He? Why should I love Him?
He is the Comforter and the Spirit of truth. He is God's invisible guide for us who love the Lord and want to serve Him with all of our being.

The Holy Ghost guides us to God's truth. He teaches us how God would have us to live during this short journey here on earth called life.

He is also the Spirit which makes up what is known as the Blessed Trinity.

He will not only lead you to the truth of God's Word, but He will also teach you how to pray and how to study.

He is alive and He is on fire for JESUS! He is more real than either you or I and He loves you with all of His heart, with all of His soul, with all of His mind, and with all of His strength.

All praise, glory and honor to God the Father, the Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Ghost. Let us exalt the Blessed Trinity every day. He is Creator, Savior and Guide of God's called-out children.

Shortly after our Lord Jesus had been crucified and the people had began to realize that they had indeed crucified God's true Son, they asked Peter what they should do and Peter preached one of the greatest sermons ever recorded. "Then Peter said unto them, repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto You, and to Your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call."³

Who are You Father, Son and Holy Ghost? A still small voice replies, I AM THAT I AM.

And I quote I John 1:7, "but if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin."⁴

We love You, Father, Son and Holy Ghost!

The Beauty of the Cross
A song of Mark Berryhill

The light reflects off of the gentle moving waves of the lake and creates a picturesque scene of tranquility.

As the brilliant bright orange sun begins its decent for the evening, one can see that the Creator of the beauty of the universe and of life is the true artist.

The sun is slowly transformed into a soft color of pink and the clouds appear to come to life. It is as though they also are singing and rejoicing over the beauty of God's majestic and overwhelming creation.

Why did He take the time to create you? Why does He love you with all of His heart, soul, mind and strength?

I suppose that He loves you with all that He is because He formed you with His delicate fingers in the womb of your mother.

The great mountains that reach into the Heavens cry out and say, worship God for He is the great I AM!

Rejoice and be glad for your Father is singing and dancing with joy in His heart over you at this very moment.

Listen to the great seas which roar because of the wind commanded by His voice and by His strength. His clouds readily bring forth His rain for an obedient people who love and serve Him with all of their being.

He is God. He is the provider of the life, light and love of mankind. We, His called-out children learn to truly love Him, and to truly trust in Him as He walks and talks with us through His Word.

He turns tears of sadness into tears of joy. He turns cries of pain and agony into cries of laughter and rejoicing. He turns children of darkness into children of light.

As though by a stroke of a pen JEHOVAH signed the victory which is known as the cross of His Son Jesus Christ.

He is my provision. He is my life and He will become yours if you want a Father who will never leave you nor forsake you.

Christ's Goal for the Child
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

The child brings such joy into the heart of the Father. Indeed as a closer look is taken, the child remembers the Father so evermore closely.

He is indeed young and tender. Can't you see that he was created in the image and likeness of His Creator? He loves his mother and her family as I suppose his Father God loves him.

He knows at the early age of eight that His Father is the Lord God Almighty. He is quickly becoming a young man.

The formative years of the child are so important to his physical and spiritual well being. The formative years are before his conception until his death.

He must be taught his Father's Word each day. I know that His Father will teach him how to truly study the greatest book ever written.

From before conception until after death may the child be ever hearing The Word of His Father. From the time the child can read until the time God takes him home, may he be meditating on the Lord and on His Word.

Power, knowledge, wisdom and understanding also comedown from the Father of lights. The Lord hears our every thought and He knows our every move.

May our every thought and every move be about Him and about glorifying Him.

Are knowledge and wisdom truly worth more than silver and gold? Jesus Christ is the truth and He is eternal.

My son, my precious gift from God, spend your life serving your Father, the Lord God Almighty. He and His Son are eternal life.

The temporal pleasures of the world only bring sin and death into one's life.

The heart of the child is to be more valued than silver or gold. For the heart of the child is delicately and wonderfully formed by a potter who knows the clay.

The heart of the child is to be protected and guarded against evil by the Holy Scriptures known as the Word of God.

The Father's great book can teach a simple, precious, adorable child that he is a temporal and an eternal being.

Eternal paradise is Christ's goal for the child.

Delicately and Wonderfully Made
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

She is undoubtedly one of God's greatest creations. She is pretty and she is on fire for the God whom she loves.

She prays and sings and is constantly acknowledging her love for her Creator.

She also is young and tender as her brother. She is a precious seven year old girl filled with a zest for life like her Father God.

She brings such joy into His life. The child is a creation of its own. He, the Almighty, is truly the giver of every good and perfect gift.

Dressed beautifully wearing a new soft blue and white dress she truly is an adorable creation.

Can you imagine what it must be like to know that the precious child is tucked safely into the heart of their Creator because of the sacrifice of the most precious Lamb ever created?

The Lamb of God bought you at His cross two thousand years ago. Love Him, serve Him and spend eternal paradise with Him my precious, precious baby girl.

As He is in the light so shall we walk. Walking in darkness brings God's wrath, destruction and damnation while walking in His light brings love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and temperance.

The child truly is delicately and wonderfully created by a Father who loves them with all of His being.

The Gift of Life
A song of Mark Berryhill

Displayed across the Heavens is the most significant work of art that will ever be designed.

When the Creator of life painted with delicate but strong fingers the cross of His Son Jesus Christ, God the Father had a very special person in His mind.

The blood of the Lamb of God is our way back to our LORD. We were a lost and sinful people but the Father's called-out children walk in the light of His Son Jesus Christ.

To die in Christ Jesus will introduce us to the eternal victory that He won for you and I while He suffered pain and agony on the cross at Calvary.

He is the Alpha and He is the Omega. He is the Creator of love, life and laughter. He rejoices in His heart while His children cleave unto Him with all of their hearts.

The Holy Ghost is such a wonderful and powerful gift from God. The Holy Ghost is our friend. He will guide you in all truth. He will teach you how to walk the path God has set before you.

Love Him. Be attentive to His voice. He requires a willing vessel that walks with Him in true holiness and in true righteousness.

He is alive and He is on fire for Jesus. These children, these precious, precious children are His delight. As a good father constantly and consistently watches over and corrects his little ones so also is how He watches over the little lambs of God the Father.

Father, with You we are an invincible people. Father protect these little lambs against evil. Lead these precious baby lambs in the pathway of righteousness for Your great names sake.

Displayed across the Heavens is a picture painted by the most brilliant artist known to man. With delicate yet strong fingers He painted the masterpiece of all time.

YAHWEH is His name. The work of art painted by the unseen artist was painted because He had a very special and beloved person in mind.

He said, I love you, and I love you with all that I AM!

Love Me and serve Me with all that you are you very special and beloved child.

A tear of joy transforms into tears of joy running as a river, and a tear of thanksgiving likened unto a down pour of God's rain when one realizes the eternal victory Jesus Christ won for His children at His cross.

The unseen artist wept and cried, My Son, My Son, My Son where are You My Son?

All praise, glory, honor and power to the one who sits on the throne.

The Importance of Time
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

He is worthy to be praised because He is the Creator of life. He is worthy to be praised because He is the sustainer of life. He is worthy to be praised because He is the Savior of His people.

He carries the universe by His Word. There is power beyond human comprehension within the words that are so perfectly placed in His book known as the Holy Scriptures. The power and eternal victory is in the blood of God's precious Lamb Jesus Christ.

If we give of our time or money to others it is because we care about them and are created in the image and likeness of God. Time and how we invest the time that the Lord gives us is the most important factor of life.

How do you spend your time each day? Do you spend your time serving the Lord with diligent study, prayer and fasting?

He is a God and a Lord that is restricted neither by time or the amount of love He possesses.

Four hours of scripture memorization each day is to be considered the minimal. To read five Old Testament and five new Testament chapters each day is to be considered the minimal. Drink no less than seven glasses of water each day for health and memory retention.

God is Spirit and wants to be worshipped in Spirit and in truth. He wants to bless His people. He wants to give us good gifts.

For truly He is the giver of every good and perfect gift. His ear is attentive to the cries of His children. He is a Father who will never leave nor forsake His children.

For one to be prepared for the trials of life, one must be trained in The Word of God and in the Spirit. Eternal life in paradise with God is the true goal that is set before each one of us. Seek Him and love Him with all of your heart, your soul, your mind and your strength.

He answers the prayers of His saints. He is a Father who deserves all praise, glory, honor and power. He is the great I AM THAT I AM!

Men and women of faith become men and women of faith because they serve Him the way He desires to be served. He wants all of you. Your heart, your soul, your mind and strength are to be at His command.

There is true beauty in holiness. There is true beauty in righteousness. He is calling for a bridegroom that walks in the beauty of true holiness and righteousness.

You pray and He hears. You sing with love and joy in your heart for Him and it places love and joy in His heart.

Is the motive of the heart to be weighed? May the motive of our hearts be to train a world of children in the ways of the Almighty.

He is strength. He is power. He is the Eternal One

A Story of Faith
A song of Mark Berryhill

Is there anything that is too difficult for the Lord? Be still and consider carefully who He is. Is there anything that is too difficult for the Lord?

I see Him smile with a smile that reaches from the west even unto the east. I hear Him snicker at the thought of anything being too difficult for Him.

He is able to accomplish all things. Nothing ever has been or ever will be too difficult for Him.

The Father says to be fruitful and multiply.

Be holy as I AM holy.

Love your brothers and sisters as I love your brothers and sisters. Consider them as still being young and tender.

He clearly states, I AM love. My son, my precious son, write your Father's Word on the table of your heart each day that He provides you with the air that you breathe.

My daughter, my adorable daughter, write your Father's Word on the table of your heart each day that He provides you the breath of life.

Memorize His Holy Scriptures. Write His Word on the table of your hearts my precious son and my adorable daughter.

Enjoy life. Enjoy the beauty of His marvelous creation that so readily surrounds you. You truly are fearfully and wonderfully made creations. You my precious children are the delight and joy of His heart.

Faith in God is increased through the diligent study and memorization of His Holy Scriptures.

Why were you created? You were created to love and serve your Creator with all of your being.

His blessings are countless and untold for His called-out and obedient children. He truly is a rewarder to those who believe that He is and diligently seek Him.

Who are You Father? Who are You Lord Jesus? Who are You Holy Ghost? He responded clearly and precisely, I AM THAT I AM!

He will never tire of hearing you say that you love Him. He will never ever, ever, ever leave nor forsake you. He is faithful and is true.

As written aforetime, He is the way, the truth and the life. JESUS CHRIST is His name.

Thank Him for the Spirit of Thanksgiving
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

My Lord I will praise You with all that I am. O Lord I will love You with all of my being. My Lord, cause me to serve You with a pure and perfect heart.

Father, thank You for the Spirit of thanksgiving. Thank You for Your Son and for His accomplishment at the cross. Thank You for His blood that enables us to come boldly to Your throne of grace.

Father, thank You for Your holy angel that resides wherever Your predestinated children may be walking. Lord Jesus thank You for the Spirit of concentration and for the Spirit of memory retention.

Fill us with Your infinite love and Your marvelous and everlasting Word. By Your lead and by the gift of Your Spirit enable and cause Your chosen children to know Your Holy Scriptures better than any generation of Your children have ever known the everlasting Gospel.

Teach us and our children for days without end to love You with all of our hearts, souls, minds and strength. Make us to know the number of our days. Help us to remember that our days on the earth truly are but a vapor, a shadow and a mist.

Walk Your children in the power and love of Your Word and in the unlimited power of the Holy Ghost.

The Bride and the Bridegroom
A prayer of Mark Berryhill

As the soothing comfort that is brought to the ear by the whisper of the wind as it glides through the pine trees which reach into Heaven, so is the comfort our God by His Holy Spirit brings forth to His children.

The running wind causes the trees to sing a song which brings forth peacefulness and beauty to the heart of this poor man.

By the hand of the Lord the poor man is quickly becoming a rich man. Poverty and wealth must be weighed by lack of faith and lack of works against mountains of faith and mountains of works which brings God treasures of love into His children's hearts.

His precious and free gift of grace is His treasure of love extended to His called-out children. He lives and dwells in the light and so as He lives and dwells in the light so will we walk in the light of Christ from this day and each day henceforth.

He is risen and He is coming. Prepare yourself and Your children as the holy bride which is to be accounted worthy to spend eternity with the bridegroom.

His mercy and His love is immeasurable. He is a Father, a Son and a Spirit that is victorious.

He sings songs of love and beauty while dancing with joy in His heart over you this very day because He loves you with all of His heart, with all of His soul, with all of His strength and with all of His mind.

Before I formed you in the womb of your mother, I anointed you as a king and a priest unto me. You are to be a holy man because I Am the Holy One of Israel.

I remember the beauty of the delivery as you departed from the body of the mother and entered into the world. I consider and remember the beauty of the birth of the precious child.

The true beauty is the child who was brought forth by He who is Faithful and He who is True.

His words are echoed throughout the world. Consider life. Consider death. Consider eternal life against eternal separation from the Creator of life.

It has been considered and it has been weighed and we will walk in holiness and righteousness until our death or until the return of the King of kings.

A drop of rain brings forth new hope. An abundance of God's rain brings forth blessings of the earth for whom it is prepared.

The Spirit of knowledge and understanding can only be found in His book which is called by one of His great names THE WORD OF GOD.

Can you describe the colors which are found in the rainbows of God?

the Holy Ghost
